Cedric Adams, one of the most popular columnists in the midwest who in addition to conducting a daily column also does a stint on the radio, recently wrote a column on hospital bills. We believe it is rather timely to reprint it, in view of our current campaign to raise $250,000 for an addition to the Annie M. Warner Hospital. Here it is:

Hospital bills have concerned a great many of us through the years. I ran across a piece on the hospital dollar the other day that seemed interesting enough to pass along. "This bill is terrible. I'm not going to pay it," said the man at the desk. "How can you expect a working man like me to pay $128 for three days of care? What we need is hospitals that are run by the government." The cashier was having a bad time with the husband of an outgoing patient.

The man's wife had been brought in to the hospital for an emergency appendectomy three days before. The bill, broken down, covered $52.50 for the room for three days, $60 for the surgery, $10.50 for routine laboratory costs and $5 for drugs

Arrangements for the President and the First Lady to attend the church service were begun about an hour earlier by Secret Service men. Hundreds Wait Outside

The church was well-filled and other hundreds stood outside to see the Eisenhowers enter and leave the place of worship that had served as a hospital during the Battle of Gettysburg.

The pastor, the Rev. Clyde R. Brown, delivered a sermon on this text taken from Matthew: "A good tree bringeth forth good fruit" and developed the theme of the importance of good works in Christian faith and declared that "faith without a growing change in life is fraud."

It was the first time the Eisenhowers had attended services here moving into their farm home. Occupy Sixth Pew

They occupied the sixth pew from the front on the right side of the center section, two seats back of the flag-marked Lincoln pew which bears several bronze plaques telling its history. A Secret Service man in plain clothes sat immediately back of the President. Another sat near the front of the other side of the church. Tellers will have hundreds of names to tally for the post of county auditor. There is only one name on the Republican ballot for auditor, incumbent Henry M. Hersh of New Oxford. There is only one name listed for county auditor on the Democratic ballot, incumbent Armor M. Weikert, Gettysburg. Each party must name two auditors.

Dr. C. G. Crist, incumbent county coroner, is the only candidate for that office on the Republican ballot. The Democrats have no one on their ballot for coroner. Again written-in votes will decide.

Written-in votes will decide the candidates for county surveyor on both tickets. Neither the Republicans nor Democrats have any one listed on the ballot for the post. In each township and borough,

Hottest news in Hardtops is the 4-Door Riviera

Why take anything less than the sensation of the year?

WHEN you learn what's been done in the auto-mobile pictured here, you can easily see why this beauty is winning rave notices coast to coast.

Buick engineers took the hardtop body design that has been growing tremendously in popularity over the past six years - and gave it four doors instead of two.

Simple? Sure-to all outward appearances.

But it took a brand-new kind of body with wholly new structural principles to do it - to bring this long-awaited new kind of automobile to the public in volume numbers and at popular prices.

For this is a true hardtop—with the sleek and racy look of a Convertible, because there are no center posts in the window areas on either side.

And now it has front doors for the front-seat passengers - and rear doors for the rear-seat passengers -plus room increased to the size of a full Sedan.

(It took some special kind of engineering magic, you can be sure, to hinge all four doors at their forward edges for greater safety, and more ease of entering and exiting.)

HOTTEST NEWS IN AUTOMATIC DRIVES IS VARIABLE PITCH DYNAFLOW

It's, the world's first transmission with the switch-pitch principle of the modern airplane's variable pitch propeller. You get better gas mileage in cruising. You switch the pitch just by pressing the gas pedal - and get lightning-like response for getaway, or for a sudden safety-surge of accelerating power. It's the performance thrill of the year. Standard on ROADMASTER, optional on other Series at no more extra cost than earlier versions of this wonder drive.

So it looks like Buick has scooped the industry again-and come up with the hottest news in hardtops since Buick originated the first two-door hardtop six years ago.

And you can have it now - in the low-price SPECIAL or the supremely-powered CENTURY-and either one at the modest extra cost of a 4-door model

Why scrap free competition?

Competition Serves Consumers

In the production of Natural Gas or any other product

Millions of homes like yours have natural gas because more than 8,000 producers compete at great financial risk to find it and get it from the ground. The producers also compete to sell it to the pipelines who bring it to your local gas

Now, over the opposition of responsible groups and authorities, Federal price-fixing threatens your long-term gas supply and the very principle of free competitive production.

Read what these representative groups and individuals say:

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION JEROME K. KUYKENDALL, CHAIRMAN

"We believe that no sound fuel policy can be erected upon such discrimination as presently exists against natural gas and in favor of other competitive fuels . . . Congress should not single out natural gas as the only one among those fuels over which an artificial ceiling should be placed." March 22, 1955.

THE PRESIDENT'S ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON ENERGY SUPPLIES AND RESOURCES POLICY

"In the interest of a sound fuel policy and the protection of the national defense and consumer interests . . . we believe the Federal Government should not control the production, gathering, processing or sale of natural gas prior to its entry into an interstate transmission line." February 26, 1955.

FLORIDA LEAGUE OF MUNICIPALITIES

"The extension of Federal regulation to competitive producers of raw products - whether such raw products be natural gas or some other product - and the assigning of a regulated utility status to the producers of such products, is a policy contrary to the true American political philosophy." November 23, 1954.

AMERICAN NATIONAL CATTLEMEN'S ASSOCIATION

"Gas is an important product of ranch and farm land. This decision . . . may well be the beginning of laws to regulate all industries in this country, including the livestock industry." January 12, 1955.

AMERICAN FARM BUREAU FEDERATION

"Since the field price of natural gas is adequately regulated by competition we favor legislation providing that field prices of natural gas shall not be regulated by the Federal Power Commission." December 16, 1954.

U.S. Is Striving To Release Yanks

HARRISBURG (A) - Sherman Adams, assistant to President Eisenhower, says the United States will use "every peaceful means" to secure the release of 944 Americans being held by the Chinese Communists.

"We are at present concerned mainly with the efforts undertaken by the United Nations to bring about their release." he said. "These efforts are continuing and we have hope that they may yet succeed.'

Adams made the statement in a letter to Daniel W. Shaub, state adjutant of the American Legion. The state Legion on Friday made public the letter received in answer to a resolution urging the President to do something to secure the release of the Americans.
